

Wind Knot for Power and Prosperity

Renee:

So the journey... We're going to go to cave of power and this is going to be a middle world journey. And we're going to look to see where... We're going to go to three places. We're going to see where we've used our power for self gain, where we've used our power to help another person, and then we're going to visit a third place where our magical power lives, that we haven't... A place to access our magic. How does that sound? It'll be guided. And is there any questions before I start?

Renee:

I invite everyone to get comfortable.

Renee:

Imagine yourself in your favorite place in nature. Look around and you're going to see a cave.

Renee:

Ask the cave for permission to enter. This is the cave of power. Are there any obstacles that keep you from entering? What do you have to cross? What do you have to go under? What do you have to pass? Is it asking for permission? And when your inside, call to Eurus, the East wind to guide you. Eurus, come in this cave with me. Oh feel the breeze. Eurus take me to the chamber where I've used my power for self gain.

Renee:

As you go down through those chambers, what were the gifts? What were the lessons? And take the gifts. Maybe you have a power sack that you can put them into or kiss them and give them to the wind. And now you're going to come back out into the center of the cave. Eurus take me to the chamber where I've used my power to be of service to others. Where I've used my gifts. Where I've stood in my divine magic. And look around and collect up all the gifts from using your power for service. Put those in your pouch or your secret spot or give them to the wind.

Renee:

Now go back out into the central chamber of the cave, and now ask Eurus to take you to the hidden chamber. Your chamber of wind alchemy. Where is the magical gift that you forgot you had? And go into that chamber and look around. What is your magical charm, your magical gift? How can your add that to your bag of power tools?

Renee:

Now come back out into the center, and look at all your gifts. The one from misusing power, the one where you're of service, and this hidden jewel, this hidden gift that was hidden from you and ask them "do you want to all accompany me on my journey out from this cave?". Maybe some have lived their purpose. If there's those, either put them into the fire or put them into the earth, but the rest of them collect up and take with you as you enter and exit from the cave. Thank Eurus and let's send the winds home. Thank you for being here with us today. And my suggestion, is to take all of these gifts and blow them in as your first wind now.
